WAR BETWEEN ETHIOPIA AND ITALY IS NEAR

NETHERLANDS PEACE PARLEY IS SUSPENDED

Great Britain Takes An Eleventh Hour Survey

By Charles P. Nutter,
Associated Press Foreign Staff.

London, July 9.—(AP)—While predictions of an early war between Italy and Ethiopia echoed through Europe, weary British foreign office officials today began conferences with J. A. C. Avenol, League of Nations secretary-general, in another eleventh hour survey of the menacing dispute.

Prospects for peace dwindled and press predictions of imminent military developments increased with news from Scheveningen, the Netherlands, that the Italo-Ethiopian conciliation commission had suspended its sessions "indefinitely."

Official quarters at Rome, taking the view that the commission was dead, said Italy would oppose appointment of the fifth, neutral conciliator provided for in the League Council's instructions creating the commission.

Benito Mussolini's warlike intentions were further indicated as Italy called non-commissioned officers and specialist soldiers of the classes of 1909 and 1910 to the colors.

Belief that King George was trying to avert the seemingly inevitable war was expressed here after Sir Samuel Hoare, foreign secretary, called at Buckingham Palace for half an hour.

Later Avenol talked separately with Sir Samuel and Anthony Eden, British secretary for league affairs whose recent peace efforts in Rome proved fruitless, and an official communique issued afterward said they "discussed various questions which will be dealt with by the council and assembly of the League of Nations soon.

That was taken to mean an extraordinary session by the Geneva organizations might be called before the next regular session in September. On this, however, the British would not comment.

Eden subsequently told the House of Commons all possible plans for promoting peace were still being pursued.

Further evidence of the common displeasure at the government's diplomatic procedure was given when Capt. Charles Waterhouse, Conservative, suggested that "amateur diplomatic methods be given up" and the policy of sending British diplomats abroad for conferences with foreign statesmen discontinued.

The young cabinet minister also revealed to the Commons that Ethiopia was ready to discuss granting Britain water concessions at Lake Tsana and had asked the British and Egyptian Sudan government to send representatives to Addis Ababa for discussions.

Britain, however, not wishing to take steps that might aggravate the Italo-Ethiopian controversy, advised Ethiopia she favored postponement of the conferences for the time being, Eden said.

Attorney Demands That He Receive Puppy Dog as Fee

Chicago, July 9. — (AP) — Attorney Nathan Schwartz came into the court of Judge Rudolph Desort today and demanded his fee—a dog.

"You see, Judge," he said, "I represented Mrs. Pearl Scheide in a divorce action.

"Under the decree the property, consisting of six pedigreed dogs and nothing else, was to be divided equally. It was further stipulated that in the blessed event of a litter of pups, I was to receive one as payment for my services.

"Now I assert that a litter of pups has been born and I haven't got mine."

"The pups are not even due to be born until July 20," John R. Davis, the opposing counsel, declared.

Judge Desort delayed judgment on the matter until his clerk could determine if the pups were actually available for settlement of the unique fee.

FDR INSTRUCTS PWA OFFICIALS TO SPEED WORK

President Plans To End Dole By Last Of Year

Washington, July 9.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today told public works officials "speed is of the essence" in the work-relief drive to "end the dole xxx before the year is ended."

Thanking the PWA state directors for "very splendid work" in the old $3,700,000,000 program, Mr. Roosevelt told the group led to his office by Secretary Ickes:

"You are now an important part of an even greater efforts—one to be made during the next year which will provide quick employment so that we can attain, if possible, the goal we have set within this year 1935. x x x

"We will end the dole we have been paying to employable persons during the last two years. x x x We must give useful work to three and one-half million people and I believe we are going to do it."

Looking at the more than threescore officials standing before his desk, the president emphasized:

"We want the work done but we want it done now. We don't want it to run over into 1937 and 1938. This money was given to us by the Congress to spend during the fiscal year."

Many points in the president's remarks were similar to his earlier address to Harry L. Hopkins, state works progress administrators. He insisted anew that politics must be kept out, that there must be co-operation between the three federal work relief agencies—works progress, PWA and national emergency council officers—that direct relief must be ended this year and that a "perfectly simple arithmetical problem" limited the average spending per man given work out of the $4,000,000,000 fund to $1,140, including materials.

Reduce Relief Rolls In State

Chicago, July 9.—(AP)—Relief rolls were reduced 7.2 per cent in downstate Illinois in June as compared to the previous month, while there was an increase in the number of families on relief in Cook county, the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission today said.

Complete reports for June showed 283,569 families on relief as compared to 293,101, during the previous month. Increased seasonal employment, particularly in the rural districts, was cited by the commission as a reason for the reduction.

Downstate counties listed 136,142 families receiving aid in June and 146,407 in May. In Cook county the relief rolls numbered 146,427 families in May and 147,427 in June.

Senator Davis' Father Is Dead

Sharon, Pa., July 9.—(AP)—David J. Davis, who emigrated to this country 58 years ago with his favorite son, worked with him in the blazing hot steel mills and saw him rise to a place of power in American politics, is dead.

The son—U. S. Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania—was enroute to the family home today for the funeral.

The elder Davis died at the age of 83 after a week's illness at his homestead in the community he chose for his family upon arriving in 1877 with James from Tredgar, Wales. James was then only four years old.

MARGARET WALEY KIDNAPING CASE OPENS IN WEST

Prosecution Charges She Participated In Abduction

Tacoma, Wash., July 9.—(AP)—The government opened its fight to convict blue-eyed Margaret Waley of the George Weyerhaeuser kidnaping today by charging she participated in the plot from its inception.

U. S. Attorney Owen P. Hughes declared in an opening statement that the blonde defendant even was nearby when the child's lumber-wealthy family paid $200,000 ransom. Defense attorneys have indicated they will attempt to prove to the federal court jury the young woman knew nothing about the plot until after the boy was abducted.

J. P. Weyerhaeuser, Jr., father of the 9-year-old kidnap victim, was called to the stand early to testify how he paid the ransom by following instructions in the extortion letters.

The father identified the ransom letter, signed "Egoist." He was questioned by J. Charles Dennis, U. S. District Attorney.

"They are the letter and the envelope received Friday night, May 24," Weyerhaeuser said.

The letter revealed George had been kidnaped and demanded $200,000 ransom. The lad had been missing since he started home from school at noon.

"After receiving the letter what did you do?" Dennis asked.

"Inserted an ad in the papers," said Weyerhaeuser, refering to the "Percy Minnie" advertisements through which the family notified the abductors they were obtaining the ransom money.

The father is one of more than 70 witnesses the government expected to introduce.

Mrs. Waley, 19-year-old wife of Harmon M. Waley, who pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 45 years on similar charges under the Lindbergh law, leaned forward as Weyerhaeuser testified. Her face was pale.

Attorney Hughes told the jury the government would prove that Mrs. Waley, her husband, and Willard Dainard, alias Mahan, conceived the plot. Dainard is a fugitive.

Throughout the testimony before Federal Judge E. E. Cushman, Mrs. Waley scarcely glanced at the witnesses or Judge. She wore the same blue jumper dress, with white underblouse, figured with blue and red dots, as in previous appearances. Her bobbed hair, badly needing a trim, straggled over her face.

G. O. P. Crusaders Meeting Adopts Set Resolutions

Many Of The Resolutions Condemn Roosevelt's New Deal

Cleveland, July 9.—(AP)—The six-state republican crusaders conference adopted a set of resolutions today including one for immediate cash payment of the soldiers' bonus.

Many of the resolutions condemned the New Deal. After approving them, delegates from Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee adjourned the conference.

The bonus proposal was suggested by Chester J. Cook, of the republican ex-service men's league of Cuyahoga county, (Ohio) who said "millions of veterans will go along with the republican party if you go along with them."

Edward D. Pritchard, of Pennsylvania, argued against the resolution while Claude Lowers and Frank L. Panoli, both of Pennsylvania, spoke in favor of it.

Specifically, the resolution calls "for the immediate cash payment of World War veterans adjusted compensation certificates."

The platform committee offered a clause declaring for payment "as the financial ability of the government permits" but this was not included.

The conference deplored the lack of protection of negro rights in some sections of the country and added a resolution declaring for enforcement of anti-lynching laws.

Wants MacDonald To Hang Himself

London, July 9.—(AP)—A suggestion that Ramsay MacDonald cap his retirement as Prime Minister by hanging himself was put forward in the usually staid house of commons today.

George Daggar, Welsh laborite, speaking on the labor party's motion to censure the government's unemployment policy, said:

"The passing of a prime minister will do no harm. Some of us would like to read the news in the paper that he had done the best thing, that is, go out and hang himself."

SEEKS RELEASE

Springfield, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—The state board of pardons was today asked to release Jesse Binga, 70, Chicago banker, serving a one to 10-year sentence for larceny by embezzlement.

Merton W. Goodrich Upsets Plans of Prosecution by Entering Not Guilty Plea

Detroit, July 9.—(AP)—Merton Ward Goodrich quakingly mumbled a plea of not guilty in recorder's court today to the murder of 11-year-old Lillian Gallaher and completely upset prosecutions plans for swift disposition of the case he has admitted in detail.

The plea by the former inmate of an Ohio asylum for the insane took court and prosecution officials by surprise. It came from a prisoner who collapsed a moment later when he learned for the first time of his mother's death three weeks ago.

Judge Thomas M. Cotter ordered an immediate examination, and said at its conclusion:

"You are held for trial without bail."

Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea said Goodrich would be brought to trial promptly.

"I am seeking a way to make certain that this man never goes free again," he remarked.

The surprise plea also upset for the time being plans for an inquiry into Goodrich's sanity, and into that of his wife, who is held as a material witness. It was on the advice of his wife, Goodrich indicated, that he broke his promise to plead guilty and "get it over with" as quickly as possible.

Clayton Gallaher, elder brother of the girl Goodrich has admitted he enticed to his apartment, attacked and killed, was the first witness at the examination. He glared at Goodrich as he told of identifying his sister's body last September in the county morgue.

Goodrich averted his eyes trembled, and slumped down in his chair.

The prisoner collapsed again at the end of the examination. He was revived and placed in a solitary cell, where he was left crying and nervously twisting his fingers.

Judge Cotter said that either the prosecution or the defense could ask for appointment of a sanity commission before or during the trial. Under a new state law, however, Goodrich cannot escape punishment by pleading insanity, McCrea explained.

Goodrich's father, Merton E. Goodrich, a Cleveland hotel clerk and a former minister, advised his son in a letter received today to plead insanity "and leave your fate in the hands of the judge."

McCrea said he was undecided what action to take regarding Florence Harding Goodrich, the former trap-drummer's wife.

The court room crowd rushed into the street as Goodrich was being taken to the county pail, but detectives averted any threat of a demonstration by taking the prisoner through a tunnel to the jail.

Whipp's Jumbo Frogs Provide Meal For Cons

Joliet, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—Warden Frank Whipp of Stateville penitentiary discovered all eight of his jumbo frogs missing today from the warden's acquarium, and straightway suspected foul play. Two convicts confessed they had bribed the chef and made a fancy meal of the eight. The frog thieves were placed in solitary confinement.

GREAT YANGTSE SPREADS DEATH, DESTRUCTION

Chinese Rain - Swollen Rivers Have Reached Disaster Stage

Copyright, 1935,
By The Associated Press

Changteh, Hunan Province, China, July 9.—Fire followed flood as central China's rain-swollen rivers raged down to the sea today, and famine stalked after, sure to claim its share of the dead.

With 25,000,000 persons in the path of the Great Yangtse and its toll of lives already counted in the hundreds, flood waters from the Yuan river and the Tung Ting Lake besieging this city reached disaster stage.

Hundreds of thousands were trapped like rats within the city as every dike, save one, collapsed. A few American missionaries, struggling heroically, did not measure up to the proportions of the catastrophe, in which 100,000 Changteh homes already were submerged.

Fire broke out in various parts of the city. The flames, though largely kept under control by the waters separating buildings, burned to death many persons trapped in buildings by the waters.

Food was becoming scarce, and prices for the meager supplies soared. All manner of animal life was destroyed. Dead cows, chickens, pigs, work animals such as water buffaloes—the creatures upon which the Chinese farmer depends for his life—floated by on the flood waters.

With crops, work animals and farm homes wiped out by the water extending as far as the eye could see from the tallest buildings still standing in Changteh, famine was sure to follow in the wake of the floods.

The flooded country is an unbroken lake, advices said, something hitherto unknown in that region. A gale has been blowing over Shenchow and the countryside for the last 48 hours, whipping the waters into currents and waves which add to the damage. No estimate of the dead at Shenchow, where many residences have been carried away or shattered by wind and waves, has been made.

As the waters of the Yuan river rose, Shenchow victims clambered atop dikes most of which later collapsed, carrying those upon them to death. Many of those fortunate enough to find parts of the dikes which stood against the water were blown into the torrents by the roaring winds.

Assassins Of Jacob Wexler Still Unknown

Six Men Are Questioned By State's Attorney In Springfield

Springfield, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—Little progress was reported by Springfield authorities today as they included the operation of slot machines in their investigation of the slaying last night of Jacob Wexler, 48-year-old jeweler.

Six men were held for questioning by State's Attorney Alfred H. Greening, who expected to order their release. Four of the men have been charged with robbery with a gun in connection with recent holdups at which slot machines were stolen.

Police said Wexler had owned the stolen gambling devices and had insisted that the robberies be prosecuted. Reports were that the jeweler's slot machine concessions extended into Cass, Macoupin, Morgan and Christian counties.

Wexler was slain as he walked home from a theater last night. The men who shot him down escaped, leaving no trace.

Greening said a drive against gambling would be launched at once. He asked Sheriff Luke Gaule to confiscate all slot machines.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Centralia, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—R. J. Branson, Centralia, 42nd district republican representative, underwent an operation at St. Mary's hospital here today. His condition was satisfactory.

RAY LONG WELL KNOWN WRITER ENDS HIS LIFE

Found In Bedroom In An Unconscious Condition

Beverly Hills, Calif., July 9.—(AP)—Ray Long, 54, noted magazine editor, writer and publisher, died tonight in the emergency hospital here from a gunshot wound in the mouth.

Found in the bedroom of his home, Long was unconscious, and there was a small rifle at his side, Glenn Blair, ambulance driver, said.

Blair and his assistant, George Kern, said the wound appeared to have been self-inflicted.

Dr. C. C. Nelson at the hospital operated immediately but Long died within a few moments, without regaining consciousness.

Blair and Kern said they were summoned to the house, at 601 Camden Drive, by a woman who said she was the maid. When they arrived they found Long's body in his bedroom.

Detectives were dispatched to the house to examine the quarters.

Long, who for 12 years was editor of Cosmopolitan Magazine and president and editor of the International Magazine company publishing Cosmopolitan, Good Housekeeping and other magazines, was said to have been one of the highest paid editors of all time, receiving in salary and company profits some $180,000 a year.

He was born in Lebanon, Ind., Mar. 23, 1878, educated in Indianapolis schools and began his first newspaper work on the Indianapolis News in 1900. He became managing editor of the Cincinnati Post in 1905 and worked in a similar capacity for the Cleveland Press. In 1910 he became editor of Hampton's Magazine, later serving as editor of the Red Book group and going to Cosmopolitan in 1910.

Long had been an executive in the Columbia Studio story department and shortly before his death was named western editor of Liberty Magazins.

SEARCH FOR BODY

Danville, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—Searching parties turned to Lake Vermilion today in an effort to locate Firmin Pacot, 56, who has been missing since Sunday. A note addressed to a daughter, police said, told of the missing man's despondency over ill health and asked forgiveness for his actions.

FIGHT DISEASE AND FIRES IN FLOOD AREAS

Property Damage In New York Reaches $10,000,000

Albany, N. Y., July 9.—(AP)—State and federal governmental units joined tonight to combat the danger of disease and fire as receding flood waters left upstate New York with 40 dead, five missing and property damage estimated at well over $10,000,000. Nearly 3,000 were homeless.

As the water surged into northern Pennsylvania from the devastates New York lowlands, Governor Herbert H. Lehman outlined to the public health precautions that should be taken and explained what the state agencies are doing to relieve the suffering. A statewide radio hookup (Columbia) was arranged for him.

Dr. Thomas H. Parran, Jr., state health commissioner, warned persons in the flood-stricken areas to boil all drinking water.

"Our immediate problem is to remedy flooded water supplies," he said. "We are speeding aid and emergency chlorination apparatus into the section."

In many sections, fire apparatus was used to pump water from hundreds of inundated homes and stagnant pools to prevent typhoid fever.

Fire added to the confusion in the flood zone, destroying five stores and two apartments in Walton, Delaware county. Another fire swept through a store and restaurant in the flooded front street section of Binghamton. A third burned two large tanks of a Hornell gasoline storage plant.

Firemen battled the flames from rowboats or stood in water knee deep.

Stueben County alone estimated its damage would be about $4,500,000, Hornell and Watkins Glenn each $1,000,000, Oneonta $400,000 and Ithca $500,000.

Twenty or more towns in 10 counties—Stueben, Chemung, Tioga, Cortland, Delaware, Broome, Otsego, Schuyler, Tompkins, and Seneca—covering an area of some 7,000 square miles were seriously affected by water. The hardest hit sections were around Binghamton and Hornell close to the Pennsylvania border, and in the vicinity of Watkins Glen, 60 miles northwestward in the heart of the famous Finger Lakes district.

The state put 25,000 relief workers and 1,500 CCC youths to work in the flooded areas, and National Guardsmen patrolled streets in some regions.

Huey Long Will Continue Fight On Roosevelt

"Kingfish" Has Switched Attentions To National Arena In Capital

New Orleans, July 9.—(AP)—Apparently well satisfied with affairs in Louisiana, Senator Huey P. Long today switched his attention to the national arena after having his political ally, Governor O. K. Allen, lift the martial law edict under which the state's capital has existed for nearly six months.

The Louisiana "dictator" planned to return to Washington tonight to pick up his fight against President Roosevelt where he left off last Wednesday.

That the senator has no intention of softening his attack on the president was indicated last night during a verbal blast at the New Deal in which he called the chief executive a "liar and a faker," and charged the president was insincere in his tax program and old age pension plan.

Martial law in Baton Rougue was invoked last January. Today the last detachment of National Guardsmen evacuated the capital.

For the first time since January 25 the right of assembly and unrestricted speech, banned by the governor's proclamation, were returned to citizens of East Baton Rouge Parish.

Martial law was proclaimed after Senator Long charged a plot had been fostered to assassinate him.

In his radio address last night the senator again attacked Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley, head of the "old regular" faction in New Orleans which is bitterly opposed to the Long administration, but declared he was not going to remove him from office.

"I could put him out in five minutes if I wanted to," Long said, "but I'm going to let the people of New Orleans find out just what he is and let them put him out."

PETITIONS BOARD

Springfield, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—Eleanor Jarman, the "blond tigress" serving a term in Dwight reformatory for a Chicago holdup murder, today sent to the state pardon board a petition for commutation of sentence.

Earl Hoch, son of the man slain in the robbery, appeared before the board to declare that mercy is not deserved.

RECOMMENDS POSTMASTER

Washington, July 9.—(AP)—Representative Mason, (D., Ill.), said today he had recommended the appointment of Henry Noe as postmaster at Pawnee, Ill.

HOUSE LEADERS SEEK GREATER CONSIDERATION

Kisses Are Not Proof of Love Judge Declares

Chicago, July 9.—(AP)—Kisses, Superior Judge James J. Kelly, a bachelor, ruled today, are no proof of a love theft.

So holding, he dismissed the $100,000 damage suit in which Mrs. Naomi F. Bulloch alleged that Miss Margaret Guilbault, a supervisor of nurses, stole the love of the plaintiff's husband, George C. Bulloch.

A former head of a financial service, Bulloch testified he met Miss Guilbault in 1929 when she observed him reading a newspaper financial section on a street car and asked him about some stock he held. His relationship was never more than financial advisor, he said, and he had ceased loving his wife when he met the nurse.

"There is no evidence here that any affections existed for the defendant to steal," Judge Kelly held, "there might even have been kisses without involving theft of love. A mere kiss is no proof of such theft."

FARMERS FIGHT DUEL; ONE ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

Second Man Reported To Have Been Wounded

Freeport, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—A feud between two aged farmers over straying hogs resulted today in the death of one and the critical wounding of his adversary after a pistol duel at approximately 10 yards.

Frank Williams, 68, was dead and his next door neighbor, John Linton, 70, was in a Freeport hospital, where physicians said his life was ebbing.

They occupied adjoining farms near Shannon—with their farm homes only a few rods apart—and it was over a low fence separating their property that the duel was fought, authorities said.

Neighbors said "bad blood" developed between the men almost two years ago when Williams had Linton arrested after the latter's hogs wandered on to his land.

Deputy sheriffs said they learned Linton was leading a horse to the barn when Williams appeared with a pistol and opened fire. Dropping the lead, rope, Linton got his own weapon from the house and approached his lot line firing.

Officers said each man stood on his own side of the fence while they pumped lead at each other. Linton dropped, then struggled to his feet and led the waiting horse into the barn.

Then, as the horse ran from the barn but Linton did not reappear, Williams walked toward his own house. He stopped, deputies said, and fired a shot into his head.

A coroner's jury today decided Williams killed himself, but was struck by another bullet, presumably fired by Linton, which would have proved fatal in itself.

Neighbors found Linton gravely wounded in the barn and sent him to the hospital. Linton has a wife and nine children.

Boys Find Body Near Hammond

Hammond, Ind., July 9.—(AP)—Two boys on a strawberry-picking holiday from an orphanage here stumbled onto the legless corpse of a well-dressed man today in the swampy Robbinsdale section which was notorious as a burying-ground for Chicago gang victims during prohibition days.

The slain man's head had been beaten in, a rope was knotted tightly about his neck, and his legs had been cleverly amputated by some sharp instrument. A coroner's physician said he had been in the swamp for four or five days.

Police said the mutilated body was wrapped in a cotton blanket around which another rope had been tied. The head was covered with newspepers dated June 27 and 28. The victim weighed about 170 pounds, normally was about five feet 10 inches tall, and had dark wavy hair.

DISCUSS NRA STAFF

Washington, July 9.—(AP)—NRA disclosed today that 20 per cent of its field staff of approximately 1,200 had been given dismissal notices. Another 20 per cent will receive these notices at once, officials said.

Reduction of the field staff has been comparatively slow, it was asserted, because of the possibility that NRA may have charge of government contract work. Were it not for this, the officials added, virtually the entire field staff might be dismissed at once.

MEMBERS MEET PRESIDENT AT WHITE HOUSE

Conference Is Called At Request Of Speaker

Washington, July 9.—(AP)—House democratic leaders, at a conference tonight with President Roosevelt were reliably reported to have sought greater consideration for the desires of that branch of congress.

The White House announced the parley had been called at the request of Speaker Byrns and was for a general legislative discussion—including prospects for adjournment.

From some of the 14 democratic chiefs included in the invitation, however, it was learned that it had been determined beforehand to tell the president the reasons for undercurrents of dissatisfaction in the house which brought defeat to his mandatory abolition for utility holding companies and threatened other measures in his "must" program.

Numerous things, these leaders asserted, have brought the present feeling of dissatisfaction. Among them:

The fact that on several occasions the president has yielded to the senate on matters on which the house had declined to bow to house wishes;

The continued trouble members are having over patronage;

The fact that the president declined to listen to the advice of some regularly elected leaders who told him the abolition of utility holding companies was doomed to defeat and suggested that he agree to a compromise.

On two outstanding occasions, one leader said, the house was forced to "lose face" because the president gave way to the senate. The first occassion was in the independent offices appropriation bill, minus the provision for restoring the remaining five per cent of the federal pay cut. The president demurred to a suggestion for its insertion.

When the bills go to the senate, however, an amendment restoring that pay cut on April 1 was offered by Senator Byrnes (D-SC) with the remark that it would be acceptable to the president. It was.

More recently, the senate was victorious on the form for restoring a skeleton NRA.

All the while, there have been periodic uprisings over patronage. Numerous conferences were held at the White House and each time, the house members left feeling fine. But the dissatisfaction later has increased.

Harsh words were spoken privately, too, at the president's apparent unwillingness to believe that formal polls made of house members before the utilities bill vote showed that the holding company abolition section would be defeated.

One day the house voted 216 to 146 against the provision after calling in the regular house leaders to talk with them before the final vote. President Roosevelt conferred with Representative Rankin (D-Miss), that the abolition feature would be approved on the vote the following day. But when the roll was called, the controverted provision was licked by 111 instead of 70 votes.

Although tonight's White House list included the names of the chairman of virtually all big house committees, that of Rankin, who heads the veterans affairs committee, was absent.

That of McSwain (D-SC), chairman of the military affairs committee, was deliberately omitted to give intimation that the conference had nothing to do with the Tennessee Valley authority bill now pending on the house floor.

Representative Sabath (D-Ill), chairman of the unofficial house democratic steering committee, said he had been working since the session started in an attempt to get patronage problems settled.

Four Killed In Auto Collision

Chicago, July 9.—(AP)—Deaths of four persons in an automobile collision June 6 near Matteson between cars driven by Richard R. Rollins, of Des Moines, Ia., and William Bean, of Kankakee, Ill., were held accidental today by a coroner's jury.

Bean, his wife, Emma; their son-in-law, John Avos and Avos' wife, Ruth, were fatally injured. Rollins and his wife, Mary, recovered from their injuries.

Witnesses testified the Rollins car was struck when Bean's machine went through a traffic stop sign.

Chicago, July 9.—(AP)—Charles A. Rheinstrom, traffic manager of American Airlines, today announced additional services, effective Wednesday, including a fifth round trip to St. Louis from Chicago.

John D's Birthday

Monday John D. Rockefeller was 96 years old. From New York there came to his estate near Lakewood, N. J., a birthday cake weighing 63 pounds. It was about two feet across and carried 96 candles. The aged oil king cut the cake and gave a piece of it to the four-year-old daughter of his chauffeur.

A 63-pound cake is a little large for a hungry man. For a frail patriarch of 96 it is most too much. Rockefeller can eat little of this big cake, but he can of course divide it among his family and employes. There are some things that even a millionnaire cannot do, and among them is the eating of a huge birthday cake.

The man who has more money than anybody except a New Deal spender can imagine, has reached the point where he requires little. He is too old to enjoy a hearty meal or to spend his money traveling about the world or in lavish entertainment. Every effort is made to keep his days as quiet as possible and to surround him with peace and rest. Altho his wants are little, the care he receives is expensive, and if he did not have it, he might not be alive now.

But this man who clings so tenaciously to life hopes to reach the century mark. He says he feels better than he has felt in years, but when he left his Florida winter home, he did not greet the natives assembled to bid him farewell. He boarded his private car without saying a word to anyone, which was contrary to his custom. Despite all efforts to protect him, old age exacts its toll.

Strange Lightning

When the lightning begins its vivid play across the sky, some people fear. Old warnings come to their minds and they do one of a dozen things that may protect them from a fatal bolt. They avoid chimneys, or they take refuge on feather beds.

In Bluefields, W. Va., a mother nursing a ten-month-old baby, was killed by a bolt of lightning. The baby was uninjured, and physicians believe it suffered no ill effects. Seemingly the lightning chose its victim and rejected the helpless infant in favor of the mother.

It matters little what one does in a thunder-storm, but it does matter if his body forms part of a circuit a lightning bolt travels in reaching the ground. In that case the results are nearly always fatal. When the lightning struck the West Virinia mother, it did not send its current thru the body of the child.

When that baby grows to maturity it will carry in memory the strange story of how its mother was killed while it was in her arms. It will know that its escape was miraculous, and if the child grows up with religious training, he or she will wonder for what great purpose the life was spared.

Traffic Enforcement

Local police and state cops are cooperating in a most admirable campaign to enforce traffic regulations in Jacksonville. Police have marked the square for proper parking and are handing out tickets to those who park over the white lines. State cops have rounded up many who violate driving regualtions on the state routes within the city.

This is all good work and officers are to be commended for their efforts. Citizens of Jacksonville should also cooperate and observe the parking and driving rules, so that Jacksonville may become a city where violations are rare. Strict enforcement will do the job, but civic pride of motorists should prove a potent factor.

A suggestion which might prove a help in the enforcement campaign is that city authorities follow the same course as does the state in handling violations. Instead of sending the violator to the police station, the ticket should direct him to appear in the court of a justice of the peace. This means a docket entry and a disposition of the case that the motorist will remember. If he is a first offender, it would be within the discretion of the court to be lenintent; but if he proved to be a seasoned violator the penalty would be proportioniate.

The plan to institute a parking time limit is good. Some arrangement should also be made to relieve the congestion on loop streets and on the main thorofares leading into the square. With the movement to make traffic conditions better actually under way, these changes will doubtless be made in due course.

Gamblers—Pirates

As the white fog of the Pacific rolled up in the early morning, pirates boarded a luxurous ship anchored four miles off Long Beach. They cowed the crew with sawed-off shotguns and took away $23,000 in cash and $10,000 worth of gems. The gambling ship Monte Carlo was looted in old fashioned pirate style.

The ship was stopped on the high seas, a mile beyond the reach of United States law which would punish gamblers. There gaming Americans squandered their money and won what luck sent them. The pirates were also gamblers. They bet on the fog to conceal their operations while they robbed the ship's proprietors of other people's money.

The crime constituted piracy on the high seas. The coast guard was sent into action thru requests of Long Beach police. The government could chase pirates, but could do nothing with gamblers beyond the three-mile limit. In one case freeborn citizens voluntarily submitted to piracy on the high seas, but in pleasant surroundings. In the other case the Monte Carlo gambling promoters submitted to piracy, but not voluntarily; here shotguns were a compelling factor. Apparently there's a difference.

Try To Forget It

From The Macomb Journal

On the theory that what one doesn't know doesn't hurt, the state sales tax set out to be a painless tax, a tax that niched one for a few cents at very frequent intervals when he wasn't looking. But the unavoidable process of taking away the anesthetic has gone on steadily.

As long as it appeared that the merchant was paying the tax, the public wasn't much concerned. In fact, at the beginning the tax was supposed to be a tax on doing business; not a tax on the consumer. Obviously merchants could not carry the load so they added "tax expense" charges. Now with the increase of the tax to three percent the state has issued tokens and the tax is out in the open where all can see and can't forget.

The man who finds his pockets full of pennies and alumnium tokens (and little else) can't be kidded now into thinking that he pays no state tax.

It is better that it is this way. The public should always be tax-conscious. Hidden taxes destroy a feeling of responsibility on the part of the individual. Unless taxes are out where they can be seen public opinion does not apply to taxing-bodies the curbs that should be applied.

Progress With Youth

By the end of this month, if all goes as expected, there will be approximately 600,000 young men in the famous Civilian Conservation Corps. The work of doubling the strength of the corps has been going forward rapidly, and an enrollment of 400,000 was recorded early in July.

New camps are being established in every state in the union. The War Department is building 1400 new sets of camp buildings, and tent colonies are being erected in many localities. Here in Jacksonville a permanent camp will be erected within the next few months.

All in all, the work of enlarging the organization is going forward with the same quick efficiency that has characterized nearly all of the CCC operations. Here, it seems, is one fight-the-depression venture which has been a huge success. It has taken thousands of young men off the streets, enabled them to earn a living and build themselves up physically and mentally; and at the same time it has been doing a great deal of highly valuable work in the conservation of our natural resources of woodland, stream and field.

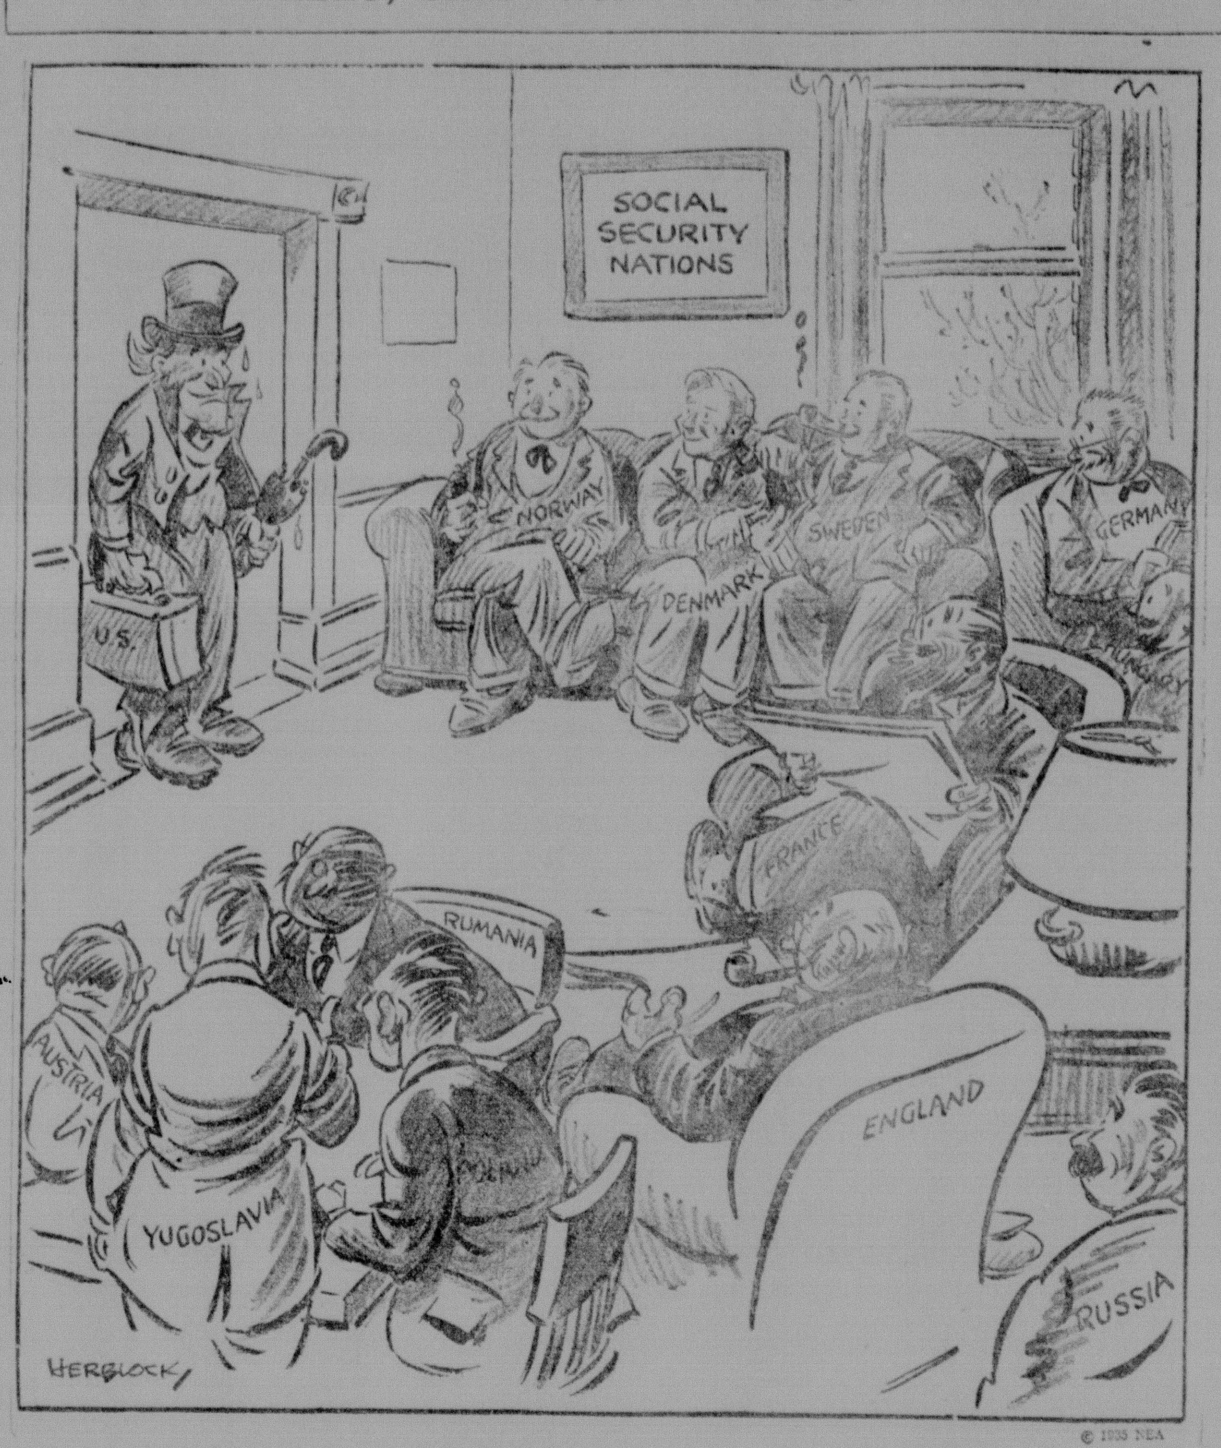
An Uninspiring Career

A cablegram from Berlin reveals the fact that Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, Nazi minister for propaganda and public enlightenment, is displeased with the attitude displayed by students in the official German Press School.

Visiting the school recently, he publicly reproved the students for laziness, declaring that "the general level of education and abilities among you is far from satisfactory" and adding that he would not allow the German press "to decline to a low cultural level."

One sympathizes with Herr Goebbels' disappointment. Yet it is hard to see why future newspapermen should bother to do much studying in a nation like Germany. Where freedom of the press is dead, and the job of a newspaperman consists in taking government handouts and assiduously "yessing" the national administration—why should any student of journalism work hard to prepare himself for his career?

'HELLO, SAM—WHERE'VE YOU BEEN?'



Behind The Scenes In Washington

New Work-Relief Program Is Assuming CWA Appearance . . . But That's No Condemnation . . . Record Shows There Has Been Some Real Achievement Under New Deal Plan.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal and Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington.—News that the four billion dollar work-relief program is blossoming out as another CWA will surprise only those who have relied for information on the mimeographed handouts from government press agents.

Aside from the resettlement experiments of Dr. Rex Tugwell, the rural electrification experiments of Morris Llewellyn Cooke, and some housing and a few PWA projects under Secretary Harold L. Ickes, the bulk of the money will be used to employ men on inexpensive projects similar to those of the old CWA and the unballyhooed FERA work program, which continued after it and was still employing a couple of million men when the new program officially began.

The administration's reluctance to admit as much encourages the prevalent idea that CWA primarily means a program of "leaf-raking," "boondoggling" and that sort of thing.

But CWA itself and CWA incognito (following partial demobilization) contributed a great deal more than that. It's up to the individual community to insist that its work-relief projects be of genuine value. The extent to which the new CWA is a success depends on the intelligence and integrity of local and state officials, as well as willingness to contribute materials and expert supervision for available cheap man-power.

* * *

Real Achievement Shown

Just to give you an idea, the records show that Harry Hopkins' work-relief labor has accomplished the following since CWA was "demolished":

HEALTH AND SANITATION—Built 2259 miles of sewers, 1600 miles of watermains, 553 hospitals and improved or extended 218; 529 reservoirs and improved or cleaned 218; 500 sewage disposal or garbage disposal plants, 245,121 sanitary privies and improved 24,000; installed 2466 septic tanks and drained 3,275,000 acres of mosquito-breeding swamps through 28,363 miles of drainage ditches.

PUBLIC RECREATION—Built 2360 new playgrounds and improved 4433; 131 stadiums, improving 73; 316 swimming pools, improving 95; 532 community centers, improving 101; 3301 park, improving 2447; 572 athletic fields, improving 242; and built or improved nearly 5000 baseball diamonds, golf courses, tennis, basketball, and handball courts, zoos, and so on.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS—Constructed 8602 and improved 9990 airport buildings, armories, auditoriums, abattoirs, bus and car shelters, city halls, courthouses, fairground buildings, fire halls, garages, jails, libraries, public markets, military posts, museums, police stations, ranger posts, rest rooms, waterworks stations, and other structures.

SCHOOLS—Repaired and improved 30,188 school buildings and built 1856 new ones and additions; repaired 417 state college, state normal, and university buildings and built 36 new ones.

There were many other miscelaneous jobs, notably conservation of soil, water, and livestock in 21 states.

Many of the projects listed were begun under CWA.

* * *

Project Type Improves

Although there probably will be more politics than ever in the new work-relief program, the administration has been so sensitive to criticism of CWA in other respects that the type of projects has continued to improve on the average and probably will continue to do so.

As to the original CWA, it is worth noting that FERA claims 500,000 miles of highway were improved during the 1933-34 winter, hundreds of bridges and thousands of culverts were built, more than 4,000,000 rats were killed in rodent control drives, and so on through a long list of things.

White collar relief, an important part of the new program, employed about 50,000 teachers to instruct more than 800,000 adults, kept 75,000 students in college, and helped keep 330,000 children in school.

Its Public Works of Art Project at least profusely decorated the walls of every federal building through employment of needy artists, and then there were various historical surveys, organization of orchestras and other cultural activities, archeological projects, women's projects, and self-help co-operatives.

Organization of the new program has been confused and messy. But now Hopkins has been given the ball and told to run as fast as he knows how. The record indicates the program will be far from a dead loss.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

To the Editor of the Jacksonville Daily Journal

Beverly Hills, Calif., July 9.—Hurrah for Mr. Rockefeller, 96 years old and one of the very few men that knew how to give money away so that every dollar does good. That's more than our government can do. It's more than anybody can do. All over the world there is a Rockefeler doctor swatting at a mosquito, or trapping a poisoncus fly. I flew the whole east coast of Brazil and they have eliminated mosquitos. However I do wish he would spread some of that Standard oil, (or even Gulf) on some of these home talent mosquitos. There is no end to that old gentleman's talents. He beat insurance without dying. They just got discouraged and paid him. He will make the 100 and some to spare.

DOWN WAVERLY WAY

Centennial Year Sketches of Morgan County's Second City

By MRS. GEO. P. ROMANG

Antiques, did you say? Well, old Waverly has her share. A little more than a year ago, a display was made of some of Waverly's antiques—genuine antiques all proudly owned by descendants of Waverly's pioneer settlers.

Among the books shown was a Bible one hundred and fifty years old, used by its owner in one church for fifty-two years. A small book of the Psalms said to be two hundred years old. A copy of Walker's Critical Pronouncing Dictionary published in 1807.

A chair, one of a set of six said to be one hundred and five years old. A handmade doll cradle more than one hundred and twenty-five years old. A child's rocker with cane seat and back over one hundred and twenty-five years old.

A pewter plate, brought from England in a sail boat about three hundred years ago. A willow ware plate brought from Massachusetts to Waverly in an ox cart in 1831, being part of a wedding set in 1818. Gold band plates, cup and saucer from a set one hundred and twenty-five years old owned by the parents of the Rev. Henry Tupper, one of Waverly's early pastors. A china tureen—Adams—one hundred years old.

A bedspread spun and woven by a grandmother of one of Waverly's elderly matrons—said to be one hundred years old. A small piece of silk from Scotland, said to be two hundred and fifty years old. A woven coverlid, in beautiful colors about one hundred and twenty-five years old. A sawtooth quilt made by the mother of one of Waverly's aged men one hundred years ago.

A handmade towel made in North Carolina about one hundred years ago. A battle axe plowed out of the virgin soil in Illinois one hundred years ago. A letter written in 1798 by Frederic Bates who later became second governor of Missouri. Twin silhouettes, glass covered, in black case, about one hundred and thirty-five years old. A fancy black bottle brought from England two hundred years ago. A sampler made in 1830 in England. A Paisley shawl more than one hundred years old. A pair of adjustable eye glass frames, of the Benjamin Franklin type made in Scotland one hundred years ago. Daguerreotypes dating back to 1800. Brass candlesticks over one hundred years old. A cane said to have been made from a door post from the oldest house in Illinois, made by Capt. John C. Salter, son of the pioneer Salter who gave Waverly her park. A china pipe one hundred and fifty years old, brought from England to North Carolina. A powder horn bearing the date of 1785.

Down Waverly Way, we are proud of our antique possessions as well as our rich heritage in ancestors.

The venturesome pioneer spirit was still going strong in 1849. Not satisfied with having come with others from New England to Central Illinois, several young Waverly men joined the wagon trains to California, lured by the promise of gold. What magic in the word!

One of these young men (afterwards to become one of the outstanding citizens of this community) after his arrival in California, not having received any letters from his people in his old Connecticut home, wrote interestingly to a sister there as follows:

"I would like to exchange a month of California for a few sleigh rides over those old Connecticut hills, however I am well pleased with California. I had a slight touch of California fever which lasted four weeks. Most of my time has been spent in a valley at a city situated at the mouth of Feather River.

"We built a cabin expecting to stay until the rainy season is over and work in the lumber, but find it is rough and bad work, think we will abandon the enterprise. Think instead we will take a launch load of provisions to the head of the Sacramento River as it is worth one dollar per pound which would be an advance of about eighty cents per pound over the prices down here.

"There is plenty of gold here and if my life and health are spared I am bound to have my share of it before I leave. What time I have been able to work I have done very well though I never worked in the diggings. Think of going there in the spring, perhaps sooner.

"Our table groans under the weight of the finest ducks and geese and the best beef I ever saw. Wild cattle are easily taken by a good marksman. I was out yesterday and shot a fine heifer so you see there is no prospect of us starving.

"As for the climate I am perfectly delighted with it. When you reply to this letter address Sacramento City, U. C."

On his return to Waverly, this young man became a farmer on a large and successful scale. A lover of good horses, he was a familiar figure sitting erect on his fine saddle horse even after he was eighty years old.

Who knows but that the time spent on the California gold fields gave him a deeper insight into life's problems and helped to make him one of the outstanding characters of his community?

Liberal Policy for NRA Codes Stated

Commission's Rules Will Be Uniform, Chairman Davis Says in Statement

Washington—(AP)—A policy of liberality in writing voluntary codes for business was enunciated today by Chairman Ewin L. Davis of the Federal Trade Commission.

It is with this attitude, the chairman said, that the commission is studying recent inquiries from about 80 industries as to the commission's agreements, which are similar to NRA codes but lack labor provisions.

"We want to be as liberal as possible within the law," Davis declared in an interview giving the first official indication of the commission's plans for codification since it was designated by the president last week as the government's arbiter for industry, succeeding NRA.

"The commission's rules will be absolutely uniform," Davis said. "They shall be stated broadly enough so as to apply to all industries alike. We are giving closest consideration to many suggestions, such as open pricing, sales below costs, uniform discounts, loss leaders, and other matters which the commission has not permitted in its codes before."

Piquett Waits Too Long; Forfeits Bond

May Be Returned Later If He is Able to Post Appeal Security

Chicago—(AP)—Attorney Louis Piquett, sentenced to Leavenworth penitentiary for furnishing aid to the Dillinger gang, was $12,500 late to court today.

Due to appear and schedule an appeal bond, Piquett sauntered into Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan's court 20 minutes after the judge had ordered the lawyer's old bond of $12,500 forfeited.

Piquett apologized, insisting he had made a mistake about the time. The judge indicated he would expunge the forfeiture if Piquett posted his appeal bond, and the stocky criminal lawyer hurried off to arrange it.

An order for Piquett's arrest, as a fugitive from justice, was issued when he failed to appear, and he was taken into technical custody on his arrival. Piquett said he was sure he could post the $10,000 set for his freedom pending the appeal.

Wheaton President Claims a Victory

Presbyterian Church Ends Hearing Without Taking Any Testimony

Chicago—(AP)—Dr. J. Oliver Buswell, president of Wheaton College today called the sudden end of his ecclesiastical trial on charges of being a Presbyterian rebel a victory which should "awaken the rank and file of the church."

A seven member court ended the hearing last night "without prejudice to future action" after a day of preliminaries and with no evidence taken. The court ruled that the charges had not been presented according to church procedure.

"It was a victory for the constitutional and regular provision," Dr. Buswell said.

"It will have two results: First, that the rank and file of the church should awaken to the menace facing them for not going along with the dominant political machine. Second, that it should awaken them to the crisis in the church and rescue them from the bureaucracy which fastened upon it."

Germany Begins to Build U-Boats and New Battle Ships

28 Submarines Planned for This Year; Two Large Ships Planned

Berlin—(AP)—Germany concentrated her new naval building program today on submarines—the dread u-boats of the World War, forbidden to the Reich by the Versailles treaty.

A communique, based on Germany's naval agreement with Great Britain disclosed that 28 submarines are provided for in the 1935 naval building program, three already launched.

The program also included construction this year of two battleships, each of 26,000 tons displacement and armed with 28-centimeter guns; two cruisers, each of 10,000 tons displacement and carrying 20-centimeter guns, and 16 destroyers of 1,625 tons, with 12.7 centimeter guns.

A size of 250 tons was prescribed for 20 of the submarines, with two of 750 tons each and six of 500 tons.

The first of the 250-ton craft in the underseas fleet went into service June 29—just 11 days after conclusion of the Anglo-German naval agreement, putting their navies on a permanent 100-35 basis. Two more have been launched.

The communique explained the speed of the construction by asserting that the keels of some units already were laid this year.

Construction of airplane carriers was put over for the 1936 building program, with a year's course of preparation to precede this building.

First Wheat Moved In Jersey County

Tenant Farmer Brings Load to Elevator Saturday; Mrs. T. Vahle Dies

Jerseyville, Ill.—The first load of 1935 wheat to be brought to Jerseyville was received late Saturday afternoon at the elevator of the Jersey County Grain Company on East Exchange street. Charles Tucker, a tenant on the farm of C. G. Reddish in the Nutwood vicinity brought the grain to the elevator here.

The wheat graded number two and ran a test of fifty-eight pounds to the bushel. The grain was placed in storage and will be sold at a later date. Tucker received the sack of flour given by the company to the first wheat producer of the season.

Several farmers were hauling wheat to Jerseyville Monday morning. Claude Yocom delivered a load to the Stanard Tilton Company and others who came in later in the day were Fred Mowrey of Kane, D. B. Grether of Rosedale and Charles Tucket of East Hardin.

Labor War Threatens Sugar Bowl

The man with the hoe, in this instance, is an important contributor to the nation's sugar supply. He is one of hundreds who till the sugar beet fields of Ohio. He and his comrades have become industrialized, belong to the Agricultural Workers' Union and bitterly contend that the back-straining labor of wielding a short handled hoe is worth more than $10 an acre. When growers refused their demands, they threatened to strike on the 10,000 acres they cultivate but compromised in an agreement to continue at the present scale until their contracts expire.

White Lines Show Car Owners Where To Park Up Town

Violators Will Be Ordered to Report at City Hall; No Double Parking

Police yesterday redoubled their efforts to enforce traffic and parking regulations in uptown Jacksonville, with a system of angle parking markers directing car owners where to park around the square. All patrolman have been supplied with traffic cards, and these are attached to automobiles not properly parked.

White parking lines have been painted on three sides of the square, and the north side is expected to be finished tonight. The police have been ordered to see that all cars are within the lines.

Five cards for improper parking had been given out by the middle of the morning. In each case the driver was ordered to report at the police station. They were further acquainted with the regulations and told not to let it happen again. Persistent violations of parking rules will be followed by arrests.

Police on traffic duty yesterday found that the most frequent violation is parking over or outside of the white lines. Several drivers left their cars half-way over the lines, thus crowding someone else and reducing the space because of over-lapping.

Police have figured that from twelve to fifteen cars can be parked on each quarter of the square if the rules are observed. Efforts will be continued to have the owners place their machines directly within the specified lines.

Double parking also is being carefully watched and numerous tickets have been issued for this offense. The State Highway Department is insistent that the traffic lanes through the business district be kept open, and local authorities are cooperating. Double parking unless a person is left in the car is prohibited.

Officials in charge of the traffic situation believe that within a short time a parking limit will be established for the business section. Such a measure, no doubt, would improve conditions. A two hour parking limit now is being considered.

2 Accidents Occur In Harvest Fields

Greene County Farmer Has Badly Sprained Ankle; Heat Overcomes Man

White Hall—Norman Davis suffered a badly sprained ankle Saturday while working in the harvest field at his farm east of the city. He stepped down off the binder into a hole in the ground and turned the ankle. He is now going about on crutches.

Burley Hawk suffered a fainting spell Friday while working in the harvest field on the Hawk farm northwest of the city. He had been driving a tractor hitched to a binder and the machine became mired in the soft field caused by so much rain. He went to the house to get a chain and fainted on the porch. It is thought he became too hot.

A. E. Vosseller, who has been quite ill with pneumonia at his home on West Bridgeport street the past two weeks is improving and his day nurse was released on Friday. The night nurse will stay on a few more nights until he is better.

Improves From Flu

Leslie Forrestor is again able to be about after having been confined to his home for two weeks with influenza. He has resigned his position in the White Hall National Bank and will give all his time to his insurance business. He recently moved his insurance office into the Princess Theatre building from the Grange Block. Mrs. Leora Coates has been in charge of the office. Myron Ellis succeeded Mr. Forrestor in the bank. However Mr. Forrestor expects to assist in the bank during busy times and vacations.

Mrs. Edward Young and Mrs. Maude Busey of Jacksonville spent Friday in Jacksonville visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gibler of Greenfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walla Pinkerton west of White Hall.

From CCC Camps

A number of boys from CCC camps were home for the Fourth of July vacation. Earl Lockhart and Shirley Westnedge were here from Congerville camp near Bloomington. Maurice Nash from Camp Lemont-Brandon at Lockport near Chicago. Grover Hitch, Earl Edwards and Jesse Wyatt from New Salem near Petersburg. Glen Griswold, Olin Craigmiles, and Gilbert Keller from Skokie Valley near Chicago. Glen Griswold will not return to camp but will be employed on the farm by his brother, Ralph Griswold west of White Hall.

Mason Todd who is in the regular army and stationed at Scott Field in the aviation service is spending a few days with his father, Jahu Todd and his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ridings on East Lincoln street.

Four White Hall boys are in the Citizens Military Training camp at Jefferson Barracks, having gone there last week. They are Billy Erb, Ted Glover, Richard Rigg and John Moulton.

New Time Keeper

Chester Painter who recently took his degree at the University of Illinois in agriculture, has gone to Rochelle to serve as time keeper on one of the California Packing company's farms. The California Packing company is one of the largest concerns of the kind in the world and have 33,000 acres of land planted to peas and sweet corn at Rochelle. This acreage is divided into farms of three hundred acres, and Chester Painter will be employed on one of these farms. William Garrison of Hillview and Edward Vanderheyden of White Hall are also employed at Rochelle. The pea vines and the sweet corn fodder will be made into ensilage after the crops are harvested and the ensilage will be fed to one thousand head of cattle next fall and winter, thereby doing double duty and no waste.

Surber-Trippen

Mrs. Nettie Trippen and Ora Surber of Seely's Mill vicinity, southwest of White Hall were united in marriage in Carrollton by Justice of the Peace W. C. Kelly.

Mrs. Edward Strouse visited during the past week with Mrs. Paul Pruett in Alton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Desmond and his mother of Springfield visited with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bateman east of the city, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Josephine Williams of Roodhouse is visiting with her son, Clarence Williams and family on Gregory farm south of the city.

Annadell Cox of Carrollton is spending some time visiting with Ruth Wilkes, Vincent Shackelford, and with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams and family.

WRIT HOLDS TRUCK IN WHICH TWO WERE INJURED NEAR CITY

A writ of attachment was issued Monday from the court of Justice C. S. Smith on the large truck which was overturned July 4 west of the city. The attachment was served on Lloyd Wetmore and L. M. Allen, both of whom were injured in the accident and have been patients at Our Saviour's hospital. The writ was also served on the proprietor of the Auto Inn and arrangements made to keep the truck there until Aug. 7, the date set for trial.

The attachment was issued at the request of Attorney R. E. Harmon, acting for the hospital and Dr. Paul B. Hartley, the physician who attended the injured men. The writ is for $200. The truck is owned by the Monarch Motor Freight Corporation of Kansas City.

FUNERAL NOTICE

Funeral services for John Duncheon will be held Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at the Church of Our Saviour, with interment in Calvary cemetery. The remains have been removed from the Carroll Funeral Parlors to the family residence at 1020 North Main street.

Years ago, when thousands of bison roamed the West, naturalists frequently found these usually timid animals engaged in savage fights with other beasts. They discovered that the herds were battling over possession of salt licks to which instinct led them for elements absolutely essential to animal life.

He'd fight ANYTHING for what's in Budweiser

For nearly three quarters of a century, the world has acclaimed BUDWEISER as the very finest of beer—wholesome, smooth, sensible and sociable.

Brewed from Nature's choicest ingredients by flawless methods, BUDWEISER retains those natural elements absolutely essential to life and health. Among them are potassium, magnesium, sodium and calcium in the form of alkaline salts—and they're in every bottle of BUDWEISER you drink.

When people perspire freely they lose these salts. When the loss is too great, severe fatigue and even heat exhaustion may result. To replace these elements, nothing is more essential than a balanced diet. Top it off with wholesome BUDWEISER!

America's favorite is a most healthful hot weather drink for another reason. It contains enough warming alcohol to prevent harmful chilling of the stomach when a cold drink is desired.

Drink BUDWEISER—the health drink—the natural drink—the all-year-'round drink.

Fans May be Permitted to Pick Players For All-Star Baseball Classic in 1936

By Alan Gould
Associated Press Sports Editor

New York, July 9.—(AP)—Three suggestions calculated to put the all-star Major league ball game on a scrappier, more widely-popular basis were put forward by observers today in the wake of the third annual big show in the wide open spaces of the Cleveland stadium.

It is proposed (1) to give fans throughout the country a chance to vote on the selection of the two teams, as originally done and subsequently discarded; (2) allow for an off-day before the game, so that the rival pitchers will be in that much better shape to perform, regardless of their regular-season assignments, and (3) set aside a percentage of the gate receipts, say $10,000, to be split among the players on the victorious side.

The all-star game is strictly a charity affair now. The players and club owners do not get a nickel out of the receipts, except for bare expenses. All profits go to benevolent funds for old ball players, handled at three separate sources. As such, it's a noble enterprise and one that has now contributed close to $150,000 in three years [illegible] benefit purposes.

It is likely to be continued on the present basis, but as a professional proposition many baseball men think it would stimulate the game to offer something besides prestige to the victors. The players themselves do not regard the contest with as much enthusiasm as the fans. They like to play and win but their motives are not exactly altruistic and their minds are chiefly concerned with regular jobs. They feel they are running risks, without getting anything out of it.

Obviously National Leaguers don't relish three beatings in a row but they can't squawk. They selected their own five-man pitching staff for this year's game, without the help of the fans or any outsiders. Three of the five, Carl Hubbell, Dizzy Dean and Paul Derringer were used Sunday, the day before the all-star game. Another, Van Mungo, was forced out by an injury and replaced by the luckless Bill Walker, who started and lost the inter-league battle. Frankie Frisch, the team manager, was "on the spot" but it wasn't his own fault. He was ill himself and unable to play, but refused to yield any ground to the "second-guesser."

The Americans took the game in stride, too, but it looks as tho they still carry too much heavy artillery for the opposition to spike. Babe Ruth, whose homer won the first all-star game is gone. Earl Averill, a big gun in the second contest, was unable to play. Lou Gehrig has yet to get a hit in three games and Hank Greenberg, the heavy howitzer of the current pennant season, was not even invited to participate but Jimmie Foxx took a turn at blasting the enemy this year, with signal sucess.

Morgan Aces Defeat Ramblers By 10-2

Seven Run Rally In Fourth Puts Game On Skids At Park Lot

Staging a seven run uprising in the fourth inning, the Morgan Aces defeated the Ramblers 10 to 2 in the Y. M. C. A. twilight baseball league last night at the Nichols Park diamond.

Stainsforth, although hit harder than usual, kept the Ramblers under control with the exception of the fourth frame when they scored twice. The Aces pummeled Miller for only four blows during their uprising, but they took advantage of Rambler misplays to advance their cause.

Peacock, Owens Divide Honors

New York, N. Y., July 9.—(AP)—Jesse Owens of Ohio State and his national championship conqueror, Eulace Peacock of Temple, broke even in two events tonight in their final duel of the 1935 track and field season but were obliged to share the honors of a rain drenched all-star meet conducted on New York University's Ohio field, with two brilliant record performances.

Peacock capitalized his speedier getaway, and withstood Owens' sensational finishing drive to win the 100-yard dash by a scant foot in 9.7 seconds. The "Buckeye bullet" came back on a slippery take-off to square accounts in the broad jump with a leap of 23 feet 9 inches. Peacock's best was 23 feet, 6½ inches.

An unheralded foot-racer from the Far West, Norman Bright of Bellingham, Wash., carrying the colors of the San Francisco Olympic club, electrified the crowd of several hundred weather-defying enthusiasts by romping to victory over Joe McCluskey of the New York A. C., in American record time for the two-mile run.

Bright left McCluskey flatfooted on the last lap to win by 30 yards in 9 minutes, 3.2 seconds. This clipped more than two seconds from the former U. S. outdoor mark of 9:15.4, hung up by Joe Managan of Cornell University of the Princeton track in July 1933.

Bright gave the timers a surprise at the outset by requesting he be given the times at each quarter, then made good his record breaking threat with a spectacular last lap sprint. He said afterward it was his first two-mile race in competition. He has been timed for the mile in 4:14.5. Formerly a competitor for Washington State Normal, he is now a graduate student at Stanford University.

A new "world record" was claimed for the flashy New York A. C. quartet in the 1,000 meter Swedish relay. The event, new to this country, is not on the official world record list authorized by the International A. A. F., but the winners' time of 1 minute, 56.1 seconds was six-tenths of a second faster than the best previous listed performance, made by an American team consisting of Eulace Peacock, Bob Kane, Glenn Hardin and Ben Eastman at Oslo, Norway, last summer.

The N.Y.A.C. quartet, running consecutive legs of 100, 200 and 400 meters, consisted of Willard Allen, John Kunitzsky, Milton Flewellen and James McPoland.

Bringing together a flock of national champions, most of whom are headed for European trips, the meet developed several surprises. One was the defeat of Eddie O'Brien of Syracuse, national 400-meter champion, by Ivan Fuqua of Indiana in the 300-yard run. Another was the poor showing of the two California sprinters, Foy Draper of Los Angeles, and George Anderson of the Olympic club, who were fourth and fifth in the 100-yard dash.

Fifty-four-year old Pat McDonald, white-haired police officer and veteran of many national championship triumphs, outstripped three youthful competitors in the 56-pound weight toss, for height, and did it with only one hand. Pat's winning heave cleared the bar at 14 feet, nearly three feet short of the American record for this old-time event.

May Abandon All-Star Game

New York, July 9.—(AP)—The New York News says that certain National League baseball magnates laid plans today which may result in abandonment of the big league all-star game next year.

The News says that a clique of owner-business men will attempt missionary work soon to influence a majority of members to withdraw from the mid-summer feature.

The newspaper quoted President Steve McKeever of the Brooklyn Dodgers as saying he was opposed to abandonment of the big game, but that he expected a move to eliminate it at the December meeting of the baseball moguls.

The exposure of stars to injury and the lack of financial return for the participants were listed by the News as reasons for the desire to abandon the all-star game.

PROMINENT CARDINAL DIES IN ROME TODAY

Venice, Italy—(AP)—Pietro Cardinal La Fontaine, 74, patriarch of Venice, died today of arteriosclerosis.

The Cardinal, once mentioned prominently as a possible successor to Pope Benedict XV, received extreme unction last night and lapsed into unconsciousness from which he never revived.

Pope Pius XI sent his special benediction.

Cardinal La Fontaine's death reduced the membership in the Sacred College to 49 of a possible 70.

ROYAL FAMILY OF JAPAN WILL HAVE VISIT FROM STORK

Tokyo—(AP)—Court physicians announced today that Empress Nagako expected to give birth to a child during the month of November.

Emperor Hirohito and the former Princess Nagako have had five children. The first four were girls and the fifth, Prince Akihito, was born December 23, 1933.

The succession to the throne has been definitely fixed upon the male descendants by the imperial house law of February 11, 1889.

HEMSLEY TRIPLES; GEHRIG SCORES FIRST RUN

Hitting the dirt to reach third on his drive to the left field wall in the second inning of the all-star game in Cleveland Stadium, Rollie Hemsley is being called safe by Umpire Ziggy Sears in this picture, as Third Sacker Pepper Martin puts the ball on the runner. The St. Louis Browns' star backstop scored a few minutes later, after Shortstop Joe Cronin crashed a long fly to left center, which was taken by Berger, this marker giving the American Leaguers a 3-0 lead.

Jogging around from first base on Jimmy Foxx' homer in the opening inning, Lou Gehrig, Yankee slugger, is shown reaching the plate with the first run of the all-star game. Jimmy Wilson is the catcher.

Wells Oilers Win From Utility Men

Oilers Tear Loose With Five Run Assault In Fourth To Clinch Issue

Breaking loose with a five run assault in the fourth inning, the Wells Oilers turned back the Illinois Power and Light team in a Tw-Y-Light League baseball game last night 8 to 2. The Oilers had a 3-2 lead at the time they broke out with their scoring rush.

Although not particularly effective in hitting against Heiser, the Oilers combined blows with errors to run in their decisive margin. K. Rush led the hitting with a pair of blows, one for an extra base.

Braves Lose To Tigers 8 To 7

Detroit, July 9.—(AP)—Doubles by Jo-Jo White and Marvin Owen in the eleventh inning gave the Detroit Tigers an 8 to 7 win over the Boston Braves in an inter-league exhibition baseball game at Navin Field this afternoon.

General Alvin Crowder started on the mound for Detroit and was relieved by Clyde Hatter in the fifth. Ben Cantwell pitched all the way for the Braves. Boston piled up a 6 to 2 lead in the early innings but Detroit pulled up to even terms in the sixth.

Moore and Berger hit home runs for the Braves, both off Crowder. Berger's homer came with Urbanski and Lee on base.

LONDOS DENIES HE IS DONE WRESTLING

St. Louis.—(AP)—Jimmy Londos has changed his mind about retiring. The wrestler, who lost his world championship claims to Dan O'Mahoney recently, stopped off yesterday on his way to California and told of his plans for a come-back.

"I was pretty much run down through overwork and when the Irishman beat me, I thought I was through," Londos said. "However, a few days of rest and an opportunity to think it over brought me to another conclusion. I can beat O'Mahoney after three months of complete relaxation. I can beat anyone in the game and I'll be back in November to prove it."

Believe it or not, the first two persons to sign up for the Journal and Courier's big baseball day at the St. Louis Cardinal park when the Giants come to St. Louis, were two girls.

They were Sara Goodey and Mabel Holly. They were in the Journal and Courier office bright and early Monday morning to join the flock of children who will be the guests of the newspapers and the St. Louis Cardinal management July 22.

From all indications, there is going to be just about as large a demand for reserved seats in the Jacksonville section of the grandstand for the grown-ups as there will be for the seats in the knot-hole section.

The latest All-Star game, lacking some of the color of other all-star games, it seemed to us, has resulted in giving the selection of the players back to the fans, according to the dope.

Next year the fans will pick the teams for the game. Frankie Frisch, in talking about his choice of hurling selections, didn't say so, as far as we have been able to learn, but he intimated that he was handicapped by the fact that all of the top notch flingers, except Schumacher, were used in recent games which we consider a poke at the other managers in the circuit for not saving some of the best stuff for the all-star battle.

Sh—and don't tell a soul—but it is said that the park board had a tough time deciding where the new softball diamond was going to be placed. Two members voted not to put it near the swimming pool, two others voted to put it there, and Basil Sorrills, the president, voted to put it near the tank when the whole problem was tossed into his lap.

We are more or less opposed to such a site for the diamond, but that's neither here nor there. If softball attracts crowds here like it does in other cities, the space will not be sufficient to accommodate the spectators in any degree of comfort, and will partially defeat the purpose of the whole thing—which is to encourage softball.

There is bound to be some danger in connection with such an undertaking, and crowding softball spectators up against the swimming spectators is going to put a double burden on the area available.

Jay Mann is the only Tw-Y-Light league player to rap a home run thus far this year. We weren't certain which one of the Mann boys it was until we learned that Kenneth, Illinois College football player, is taking a vacation in Iowa.

The season is now in its second week, which indicates that there are not going to be many home runs rapped this year. Pitching has been far ahead of almost every other department of the game.

Virden Wins From Carrollton 7 To 2

Carrollton, Illinois.—Frech's Carrollton-Kane baseball nine was beaten by the strong Virden nine here at Green Park Sunday by a score of 7 to 2 in a very poorly played game on the part of the local team. Ten errors were chalked up to the locals, while they made almost as many errors of omission. Ths is the second game the home boys have played this season, and the club has had little practice. Green relieved Keller on the pitching mound at the beginning of the third inning and pitched a very good game having nine strike-outs to his credit and allowing only seven hits in the seven frames he worked. Yudanski pitching for Virden struckout eleven and was touched for only seven hits.

Plans to Leave Here Saturday For Northern Illinois on Way To New York; to Sail in July

With success just over the horizon, Coach S. Robey Burns, who has been conducting a single handed drive, expects to have the fund of $350 needed to pay the transportation and upkeep of John Chudzikiewicz, for a trip to the international games for deaf athletes, to be held in London next month. Burns reported yesterday that the drive thus far has netted a total of $250 and with $100 to raise, he believes it will be possible to secure the needed funds before Saturday night.

Expressing his appreciation for the manner in which Jacksonville has responded to his plea for funds, the Illinois School for the Deaf mentor made plans to leave Saturday night for Freeport and Chicago, where he will pick up Chudzikiewicz, and then continue on to Washington, D. C., where he will spend a few days with relatives before setting sail for England and the games either on July 29, or August 2.

The money raised, Burns declared, will be used only for the expenses of the athlete, as he intends to go to the games anyway and will pay his own expenses. He believes that the $350 will see Chudzikiewicz through the voyage across the ocean and maintain him while he is in London.

Gets National Flag

Pointing to the fact that A. L. Bowen, director of the department of public welfare has taken an interest in the campaign, Coach Burns said that everything has been done that can be done toward obtaining help from official sources. Director Bowen has contributed a beautiful American flag, and another of the State of Illinois for Chudzikiewicz to carry in the parade of flags, one of the impressive ceremonies included in the games. It will be the first time the American flag has been unfurled in the deaf Olympics. The flags will be returned to the United States and placed in the trophy case at the local school.

Big John, a weight throwing youth who has bettered the existing deaf Olympic records in two events, will be garbed in a gleaming white suit, across the chest of which will be the red, white and blue stripes of the national colors, and upon which will be placed the emblem of the United States.

Chudzikiewicz has been keeping in shape by daily work-outs in one of the Chicago parks. The former I.S.D. star has made one ocean voyage to win for the United States, winning the javelin throw as a member of the United States Polish team at games in Warsaw last summer.

Coach Burns, who has been handling the campaign for funds single handed, has announced that mail contributions to the cause will reach him at the Illinois School for the Deaf until Saturday night.

Ball Players Have Slipped

By Dillon Graham
Associated Press Sports Writer

Washington, July 9.—(AP)—Most of the American League players who made the baseball jaunt to the Orient last winter apparently left their "game" in Japan.

For some reason or other a majority of them are playing far below their 1934 form. Charley Gehringer, the crack Detroit second baseman; Jimmy Foxx, Philadelphia's first baseman; Hal Warstler, the A's second baseman, and Clint Brown, Cleveland pitcher, are exceptions.

Gehringer, hitting around .340, still is about tops among the keystone bag fenders. Although not batting as well as in other years, Jimmy Foxx is doing quite well with his .320 average. Warstler, who ousted Dib Williams as Philadelphia's second baseman, is hitting just under .300. Brown is having a good year.

And Bing Miller of the Boston Red Sox is doing well as a pinch hitter and in his occasional turns in the outfield. But little can be said for the others.

First Baseman Lou Gehrig of the Yankees has improved after a slow start but still is in the worst batting slump of his career.

Shortstop Eric McNair of the A's has been over the .300 mark only a few times this year. Outfielder Babe Ruth was unconditionally released by the Boston Braves and Outfielder Earl Averill of Cleveland hasn't found the hitting range.

Catcher Frank Hayes was released by the A's. Pitcher Vernon Gomez of the Yankees is having a poor year. Pitcher Joe Cascarelal was sent to the minors by the A's but was taken on by Boston. Earl Whitehill, the Washington southpaw, has never found his best form. Moe Berg, catcher, was released by Cleveland and is doing reserve duty with Boston Red Sox.

Greenberg Not Keen To Beat Babe's Mark

Doesn't Want to Be Counted Out of Majors in Four Years' Time

Detroit—(AP)—If Hank Greenberg, the current home run sensation of the majors, equals or betters Babe Ruth's record of 60 four base swats, it will be because he couldn't help it.

With 25 homers already in the bag, and a tough eastern campaign ahead of him and his pennant seeking Tiger mates, the lanky first baseman confessed to interviewers that he had a certain fear of the home run record so early in his major league career.

"I'm not eager to set a new record for homers this season," he said. "I'm going up to the plate and take my cut at the ball, but if I don't get the home runs, it doesn't bother me. I'm interested in hits."

Hank said he had a reason for not being too anxious to tie or better the four base mark.

"Supposing I'm lucky enough," said Hank, "to beat Ruth's record which would mean hitting 61 homers. Then what; it's kind of silly to even talk about it because I have only 25, and still 35 to go to equal the record.

"If I set a new mark this year and then drop back to 35 or 40 next season the fans will be saying: 'That Guy Greenberg isn't as good as he was a year ago.' They'll be counting me out and I'll be rated as a has-been in my fourth year in the majors. That's what I'm thinking about now."

Indian Gets Dander Of Irishman Aroused

O'Mahoney, Present Holder of Mat Title, Bounces Chief Wolf on Mat

New York—(AP)—It's bad business, getting an Irishman's dander up.

Chief Little Wolf of Trinidad, Colo., tried it last night with Danny O'Mahoney of Ireland, who claims the world heavyweight wrestling championship, and found himself bouncing on the ring floor like a rubber ball.

O'Mahoney, weighing 234, which was 24 pounds more than the Indian, was willing to make a nice little party out of it until the chief employed some tactics that might be termed foul. He gouged, pinched, slugged and scratched. He used his elbows and he howled blood-curdling howls. And he got the Irishman's dander up.

O'Mahoney, who took his title from Jim Londos in Boston last week, slipped out of one of the chief's best grips, lifted him high into the air and slammed him on the floor no less than a dozen times, much to the delight of the many Irish present.

Then O'Mahoney pinned his shoulders to the mat. The time was 28:23.

John Brown was among the Alexander representatives in this city yesterday.

Searcy's Fair Trade Law Signed by Gov. Horner Now in Force

Gives Manufacturers Right to Stipulate Price at Which Goods Will Be Sold

Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—Illinois today has a fair trade act.

Signed by Governor Horner late yesterday, the measure became effective immediately. It gives legal standing to contracts in which a buyer agrees that he will not sell trade-marked commodities for a price less than that stipulated by the manufacturer.

If a retailer who enters into such a contract does sell such commodities at less than the stipulated price, except under certain conditions, his violation of the agreement becomes actionable and the manufacturer is entitled to sue him for the damages resulting.

The retailer may sell such goods at less than the agreed on price provided, in closing out that particular line of goods, he gives the manufacturer ten days in which to repurchase the articles at the original invoice stock price. He may also sell at lower prices if the goods have been damaged and he so notifies the public in making the sale. The only other instance in which such commodities may be sold at less than the manufacturer's stipulated price is when an order for sale is entered by a court.

The measure was introduced by Senator Earl B. Searcy, Springfield Republican.

Lie Passed At Investigation Of Lobbying

House Rules Committee Session Is Rather Lively

By Richard L. Turner
Associated Press Staff Writer

Washington, July 9.—(AP)—Conflicting statements, rising tempers and an angry shout of "you're a liar" today electrified the house investigation of lobbying for and against the administration utility bill.

In an atmosphere that at times grew tense, the house rules committee turned first to accusations of misused administration pressure. It heard Representative Brewster (R-Me) charge that Thomas Corcoran, RFC attorney, threatened to stop work on the Passamaquoddy tide-harnessing dam, in Brewster's district, unless he voted for the mandatory abolition of "unnecessary" holding companies.

Then, it saw Brewster and Corcoran exchange chairs. From Corcoran came a sweeping denial and an added assertion that while he, Brewster and Ernest Gruening, interior department aide, stood outside the house chamber just before the abolition vote, Brewster expressed an intention of "ducking" the ballot completely.

"You're a liar," shouted Brewster, without moving.

"We'll see who's a liar," replied Corcoran, as chairman O'Connor's gavel cut short the exchange.

Plans to Complete Measures by Thursday Night to Avoid Controversy

Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—Governor Horner plans to dispose of all pending bills passed by the regular session of the Fifty-ninth general assembly by midnight Thursday.

If he succeeds in so doing he will have acted on all measures within ten days, Sundays excepted, after sine die adjournment of the assembly.

Although most authorities have held that the governor has ten days after he receives a bill in which to act, the time given him is a moot question, and Mr. Horner is anxious that all bills be disposed of by midnight Thursday, especially the important ones, so that no controversy can arise.

PAIR OF ROBBERS HUNT DIME, ESCAPE

Chicago—(AP)—Bernard Duban believes he's encountered a pair of robbers who really appreciate the value of money.

He told police that as two youthful outlaws prepared to depart from his store with $204 they had taken from him and a clerk, one of the pair dropped a dime. Halting their exit the two ordered their victims to the floor, pushed aside chairs and rolled up rugs and ignoring the danger of detection, continued the hunt until they found the coin. Then, unconcernedly, the robbers sauntered out the door, Duban reported.

Certification Bill Is Killed By Gov. Horner

Chief Executive Finds Many "Imperfections" In Measure

Springfield, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—A veto message from Governor Horner today killed the teachers' certification bill and left for a special legislative session the job of providing an "entire—not a piecemeal—reorganization of our school structure.

The governor found "imperfections" in the bill, which proposed a revision of the law on the qualification and certification of teachers, and pointed out that it was not submitted to the Stuttle educational commission during the regular session.

Saying that the new commission authorized by the legislature could make its recommendations for a general school reorganization in time to have them considered at the special session expected this fall, Mr. Horner declared of the certification bill:

"I have no information to the effect that it has the approval of educators generally in the state. It makes important innovations in the law on this subject. University degrees supplant examinations as a test for life certifcates. This may be quite desirable but it should not be adopted with undue haste and lack of thought. x x x

"There are a number of provisions which are questionable. Recent decisions of the supreme court indicate that in a number of cases there is attempted delegation of power which cannot be sustained. These and other imperfections in the bill and many protests which I have received against it lead me to believe that the entire subject should be left to the consideration of the educational commission.

NEWSBOY'S ESTATE SHOWS SHRINKAGE

Chicago, July 9.—(AP)—Administrators of the estate of Tony May, known as "the millionaire newsboy" when he died in 1930 at the age of 55, were granted court permission today to accept $275 in settlement of $66,338 claimed to have been owed the estate by newsboys and other acquaintances.

Attorney Irwin R. Hazen said May held some 800 notes ranging from $5 to $100 which he lent over many years to acquaintances who passed his newspaper stand. The $275 was offered by a collection agency desiring to purchase the notes.

Hazen said the estate, having an estimated face value of $100,000 when May died, is now worth some $10,000, because of the failure of securities which the "newsie" held and the loss on the loans.

Roosevelt Tax Program Wins First Victory

Committee Will Follow Things Outlined In Message

By Clarence M. Wright
Associated Press Staff Writer.

Washington, July 9.—(AP)—The Roosevelt tax program today won a preliminary victory against congressional efforts to broaden its wealth-tax limits.

After a fiery political discussion for and against New Deal policies, the house ways and means committee locked its doors and voted to limit present hearings—and, tacitly, the resultant bill—to the things outlined in the president's tax message. That suggested new or increased taxes on inheritances, gifts, big corporation and big individual incomes.

But while Mr. Roosevelt mentioned individual incomes of $1,000,000 and over, the committee's action was not interpreted as setting a $1,000,000 stopping point.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC), reported the agreement was "unanimous." He predicted that when the time came to write a bill, attempts to insert other levies than those outlined by the president would fail.

Wheat Prices Up Four Cents

By Franklin Mullin
Associated Press Market Writer

Chicago, July 9.—(AP)—Wheat prices were whirled upward four cents a bushel today with an increasing influx of black rust reports from widely scattered sections of the spring crop belt.

Today's spurt on top of Monday's less significant advance inceased the price upturn from bottom levels established during last week's break to approximately 9 cents.

With a rush to buy at the final gong, wheat closed 3⅞ to 4¼ cents above the previous finish, September 84⅞@85c; Other grains were strengthened by the buying in the wheat pit and corn closed ⅞@1⅛c up, September 76⅜@½c, oats ⅞@1 cent higher, and rye 1⅞@2⅛c higher. Barley was unchanged.

Of stimulating effect on buyers, besides the black rust fears, were reports of drought damage in eastern Montana and of rather disappointing threshing returns from the southwest. Buying also was associated with a sharp rise of almost four cents in nearby wheat deliveries at Liverpool, with Sterling selling at a new high for the year.

Hog Prices Hit 10 Dollar Mark

Chicago, July 9.—(AP)—The $10.00 hog price reappeared in the Chicago Stockyards ~~today~~ after an absence of three weeks as improved demand sent both swine and cattle to higher levels. Lambs on the other had uncovered an abrupt falling off of orders and lost the previous day's 25 to 40 cent advance.

Brisk demand for dressed pork, of which there was but a small supply available, stimulated the swine trade. Light pork loins again reached the season's ceiling. Wholesalers ofered only limited supplies of 8 to 12 lbs. loins at $23.00@25.50.

The cattle market today had to combat yesterday's liberal run of steers many of which were carried over to today. The market which had been generally slow all day closed fairly active with good clearance today.

Good steers were plentiful and the top was $12.10 for 1,265 lb. averages. Common and medium grades were scarce and unusually strong to 25 cents higher. All she-stock was likewise up 25 cents.

Fat lambs and yearlings closed slow and off 25 to 40 cents. Sheep closed steady. Native lambs sold at the finish at $9.00@10.

Stock Prices Sag At Close

By Frank MacMilen
Associated Press Financial Wrtier

New York, July 9.—(AP)—Rails led the stock market list today in an assault on previous resistance levels, but by the close few active shares had much to show for their early push.

Gains running to a point or so in many active carrier issues were shaded substantially in the final hour, and many of the recent industrial favorites closed with moderate losses. Utilities in the majority of cases were able to hold modest advances.

Stock market activity was fairly brisk at 1,345,030 shares, but the Associated Press average of 60 stocks ended .1 of a point down at 45.4. The small advance of .1 of a point in the 15 utilities to 33.4 brought that division of the compilation to a new 1935 high for the second day in succession.

The Steels and many of the ~~Indus~~-trial specialties, which have been the conspicuous leaders on the upside of the stock market in recent sessions, were for the most part losers today.

Remington Rand's president told stockholders that June quarter earnings were around 125 per cent above the same period of 1934 on increased gross business of 10.4 per cent, but the shares were only fractionally improved at 9⅛.

Borah Believes It Would Be Mistake To Pick Court Man

Writes Letter to Newspapers Explaining His Statement About Candidates

Washington— (AP) —Senator Borah believes the Republican party would make a "serious blunder" if it sought to pick a presidential candidate from the Supreme Court.

The Idaho Republican expanded today the views he expressed in a letter to the New York Herald Tribune, in which he said it was "low political strategy" to talk of grooming a member of the high tribunal for the nomination because of recent opinions against New Deal measures.

"I feel very deeply that at this particular juncture it would be a serious blunder to talk about the court in a political way," Borah said.

He said his letter was prompted by articles mentioning Justices Harlan F. Stone of New York and Owen J. Roberts of Philadelphia as possible candidates to oppose President Roosevelt.

Without naming them in his letter, Borah said two justices had "undoubtedly been mentioned because of recent opinions, which opinions happen to coincide with what the fertile brains of the political strategists think will make for party advantage."

"No one can be indifferent to the supreme task of the court in periods of great distress," he added. "To seek party advantage by reasons of opinions rendered in such instances is nothing less than an attack upon the court itself.

"The political party which would make an issue of constitutional government and at the same time seek the court for political leadership would reveal either gross indifference to what constitutes constitutional government, or a willingness to sacrifice its most vital principles for party advantage."

Study Fat-Reducer As Possible Poison

12 San Francisco Bay Women Suffering from Blindness

San Francisco—(AP)—Research workers of Stanford University Medical School here today were endeavoring to learn whether dinitrophenol, newly-developed "anti-fat" drug, was responsible for the temporary blindness of 12 San Francisco Bay district women who have been stricken recently.

All of the women, whose names were not revealed, had taken the drug in an attempt to reduce, Dr. Loren Chandler, dean of the school, reported.

Dr. Chandler and Dr. Walter W. Boardman, who reported the cases to the Journal of the American Medical Association, said the blindness resulted from the formation of cataracts over the eyes, but it was not yet known whether the cataracts were caused by the drug or by malnutrition, unbalanced diet or other factors.

Board of Trade is Opposed to Clause

Object to Redistribution of Wealth But Favor Higher Taxes, Leader Says

Washington.—(AP)—The New York Board of Trade's support for increased taxation as a means of balancing the budget but its strong opposition to any "class legislation" taxes were expressed today before the House ways and means committee.

Testifying on President Roosevelt's tax program, M. L. Seidman, representing the New York agency, interpreted the president's suggestions as having been made not only to raise revenue "but also, and perhaps chiefly, with the view of redistribution of wealth."

The Board of Trade, he said, "is unequivocally and most emphatically for increased taxation," but "voices strongly its opposition to class legislation."

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JO DARIEN, preparing to return home after her first year in college, receives a letter telling her that her father is out of work. Jo decides to hunt for a job instead of going home. She confides this to her roommate, TUBBY DAVIS, who is sympathetic.

Later Jo meets BRET PAUL, star athlete to whom Jo is engaged. Bret has a job as life guard for the summer. Jo tells him she can not return to school in the fall. This means that, for a year at least, the two will be separated.

Bret assures her, "Nothing can happen in a year to make any difference between us."

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER II

JO did not realize until afterward that she and Bret had walked for hours along the campus paths that night. They had walked for the most part in silence, for there were no words adequate to express their feelings. Both had looked forward to this last night together, and they had planned to use it for arranging that magic week at Placid Beach. Neither had talked very much about the proposed days together at the beach resort, for they were saving it as something to take away the hurt of leaving each other on this last week of school. Although Bret would have life guard duties at Placid Beach, they had planned mornings together, dreaming on the white sands; and they would have had the evenings, dancing to the rhythms of the best orchestra in the whole state.

But, suddenly, that magic week in midsummer was gone. If Jo found a job she would be unlikely to get time off very soon—and even if she were successful in obtaining a week's leave she couldn't afford Placid Beach.

So she walked beside the silent Bret, wishing they could forget Placid Beach; wishing, indeed, they had never planned to be together there. Once or twice she attempted some gay, irrelevant comment calculated to stir their moods into something lighter—but it was no use. Her mind was too filled with conflicting thoughts, with half-formed plans for tomorrow, with a haunting regret at leaving Bret Paul and this pleasant campus so finally.

And even after their long walk, and she had left Bret with the promise she would see him before he left for Placid Beach, she could not sleep. She tossed fitfully all through the night, and once Tubby came anxiously to the side of Jo's bed to ask if she were ill.

* * *

THE alarm clock which Jo had set for 6:30 never had the chance to get in its insistent signal, for shortly after six she reached out and pressed the little lever down to "silent." A moment later she arose wearily and sought the shower. The frigid needles of spray revived her somewhat, and by the time she had donned her jaunty tweed suit, blue hat, and a pair of sensible brogues, she felt more ready to do battle with the world.

Jo's eyes told how glad she was that Bret had come.

Just how to go about attacking the world—which happened to be extremely lethargic at that hour of the morning—Jo Darien had not the slightest idea. "I suppose," she thought, "that you buy a paper and look at the 'want ads.'"

She remembered suddenly that this would be the last day the sorority house would be open. She would have to find a new abode, and after a moment's study she remembered the Fendale apartments. Jo and her mother had stayed there on previous visits from Weston. The kitchenet apartments were small, but reasonable. Hastily Jo grabbed a pencil and scribbled a note for Tubby:

> "Please have my trunk and bags sent to the Fendale apartments, and I'll expect a visit from you before you finally get packed and out of town! I'm off after that job. Wish me luck!—Jo."

After a last look in the mirror she hurried out of the house and down toward the University Inn. There, over a meager breakfast of orange juice, toast and coffee, she scanned the newspaper columns headed "Help Wanted: Female." Borrowing a pencil from the sleepy eyed young man behind the counter she marked the advertisements which seemed within the realm of possibility, and in another five minutes she was on a street car headed down town.

* * *

BUT at noon she sat at another counter, in a section of the city wholly unfamiliar to her; and she had to confess that most of her jauntiness was gone. Her troubled, sleepless night was beginning to tell on her a little; but what had really taken the wind from her sails was the variety of reasons she had heard as to why Jo Darien shouldn't be hired.

"You have no experience in this type of work."

"We don't like college girls; they think they know too much."

"The boss likes all the girls to be brunets, not blonds."

"We've just hired all we need."

And those were only a few of the reasons she'd heard. At one place the trouble had been that Jo was too pretty. "A good-looking girl doesn't attend to business," the manager of the place had told her, looking at Jo appreciatively.

"I assure you I'm no flirt," said Jo.

"That may be, Miss Darien. But a lot of males are—and that's where the trouble comes in."

And that afternoon she encountered once again all the objections of the morning, with a few new ones thrown in for good measure. At 4 o'clock, her list and her patience utterly exhausted, she climbed into a taxi and gave the driver the address of the Fendale. A taxi was a luxury she should have avoided now, and Jo realized this without caring. She was too tired to care. In the shortest possible time she selected a tiny rear apartment and paid a week's rent in advance.

"Your baggage came this morning, Miss Darien," the manager told her. "Do you want it sent up now?"

"Not now, thank you. I'll telephone down."

Once inside the dark and unattractive little room that was now her home Jo pulled down the folding bed from behind its hiding place, and slept. She slept as a woman dead until almost 8 o'clock, and she would have slept beyond that if the ringing of the room telephone hadn't awakened her.

It was Tubby, on the desk telephone downstairs.

"How about a movie?" she asked.

"Oh, Tubby . . . I'm too tired. Besides I haven't yet eaten."

"Just stay there then," said Tubby, "and I'll scare up a lunch and bring it up. I imagine you're all in."

"That's not half strong enough for it, Tubby. Just bring me a sandwich."

* * *

BUT a sandwich had never been Tubby's idea of a lunch. When she arrived at Jo's door she had two large paper bags containing not just a sandwich, but several sandwiches in many varieties. Not to mention a jar of mayonnaise, a bottle of milk, and some assorted French pastries which had suffered a little in Tubby's strong arms.

"Tubby, you're a darling! But why did you bring so much?"

Her roommate giggled. "That's not all I brought, either." She moved toward the door again.

"Not all!" exclaimed Jo; and then, as Tubby reopened the door, "Bret! Oh, Bret, what a sight I am!"

"A mighty pretty sight, if you ask me!" Bret told her. "Tubby told me you were going to have a housewarming, and I just had to be here."

Jo's eyes told him how glad she was that he had come.

"Did you find a job, Jo?" he asked hopefully.

"I found heaps of them—but none were for me."

"Don't worry," Bret assured her. "You never find anything the first day." He reached into his pocket and pulled out a recent edition of a newspaper open at the "Help Wanted" section. "I happened to see this on the way down in the street car, Jo. It says: 'Wanted—Personable young woman to work mornings only as bookkeeper in marine supply house.'"

Bret held the paper toward Jo. "It gives the address, and if I were you I'd go down there tomorrow and try for it. Of course it's only half-time—but it would help you keep your chin up, and you'd have the afternoons free to look for something better."

Jo read the advertisement, then glanced up at Tubby and Jo. Just their presence there gave her new courage and renewed faith in herself.

"That's my job!" she said, laughing. "What do you bet?"

"Well . . ." Bret took up one of the sandwiches, peered critically between the slices of bread. "I think you'd probably win the bet. But some times you have to look around a week or so before you can get anything at all. Believe me, I know what I'm talking about."

"Just the same," said Jo, opening the refectory table vigorously, "I have a feeling that tomorrow I'm going to be a bookkeeper in a marine supply store!"

Two Persons Killed In Montana Tornado

Knob Hill Community of Wheeler, Near Fort Peck, is Center of Storm

Glasgow, Mont.—(AP)—Two persons were known dead and an undetermined number injured, several gravely, by a tornado and cloudburst that swept Fort Peck area during the night.

The severity of the wind apparently was centered in the Knob-Hill community of Wheeler, about 6 miles northwest of the Fort Peck dam, where the two were killed and perhaps 20 persons were injured.

The known dead: Mrs. Clifford Dashner of Wheeler, killed in the collapse of a building, and an unidentified man, a cook in a Wheeler resort.

Early unofficial reports indicated as many as a score of persons might have been killed, but these fears were dispelled as searchers made their way from one storm-swept community to another.

HEAR CONIGLIO PARDON PLEA IN SPRINGFIELD

Absher Opposes Petition Of Condemned Man At Hearing

Springfield, Ill., July 9.—(AP)—State's Attorney W. H. Absher of Morgan County appeared before the State Pardon Board this afternoon to oppose the petition for a pardon for Carlo Coniglio of Springfield, serving a 16-year sentence at Chester for the murder of Walter Massey at a Jacksonville filling station in 1931.

State's Attorney Alfred H. Greening of Sangamon County, who was one of Coniglio's attorneys at his two trials, said conviction was on mistaken identity and asked that pardon be granted. Appearing with Greening was J. H. Weiner, Springfield attorney.

Greening said the hung jury at the first trial stood eleven to one for acquittal, with prejudice against Coniglio because of his Italian blood working against him. Greening said he and L. E. Stone, now Circuit Judge here, were overconfident at second trial and didn't preserve their exceptions. After Greening said he wondered how prosecution quickly attacked alibi defense, Absher explained it was due to cooperation from the Springfield police department.

Absher said the first jury refused to convict Coniglio because of fear of reprisals from Italian gang in Springfield.

State's Attorney Wilford H. Absher went to Springfield Tuesday afternoon to resist the petition before the Division of Pardons and Paroles, asking the release of Coniglio, from the penitentiary.

Coniglio was convicted by a Morgan county jury at the May term of circuit court in 1931, of shooting Walter Massey during a lunch room holdup. He was prosecuted by Hugh Green, then state's attorney, and his successor, State's Attorney Absher.

Files Written Protest

Absher filed a written statement with the Division of Pardons and Paroles as follows:

"I hereby enter my written protest against the application of Carlo Coniglio for pardon. I assisted in the prosecution of said subject for murder and I believe I am as thoroughly familiar with the facts of the case as any one else. Said subject was convicted of one of the most brutal murders that Morgan county has had committed in it in many years. He deliberately engaged in a hold-up and cold-bloodedly shot to death its victim.

"He was ably defended by competent counsel, one of whom is the present state's attorney of Sangamon county and the other of whom is one of the present circuit judges of the seventh judicial district. The case was tried by one of the most competent circuit judges the seventh judicial district has had for many years, viz., Judge Frank W. Burton, now deceased.

Condemned By Judge

"On the defendant's motion for a new trial and his motion in arrest of judgment the presiding judge stated to the defendant that he, the judge, was convinced beyond any question of doubt of the defendant's guilt. The defendant was very fortunate in receiving as a sentence at the hands of the jury only two years more than the minimum sentence for his crime. I am reliably informd by members of the jury that several of the jurors were in favor of the death penalty, several of the other jurors were in favor of life imprisonment and that only one other juror held out in favor of fourteen years imprisonment and that finally the jury compromised on sixteen years in order to avoid a hung jury.

"I am convinced that the best interests of society in general, and the ends of justice will be subserved by the denial of the petition of said subject for parole. I therefore respectfully request that said petition be denied."

The petition filed on behalf of Coniglio, whose home is at Springfield, charged that he was not given a fair trial and that evidence against him was not conclusive. It was pointed out that his identification was not made for some time after his arrest.

With Pan-American Airways' announcement that regular weekly air service between California and the Philippines will begin this fall, this giant "gull," its motors roaring, figuratively tugs at the leash to be away for the ocean airlines. The vast size of this Martin passenger plane, powered by four 800-h. p. engines, is suggested by the size of the men on the lower wings. Within a few weeks, a 44-passenger plane of this type will undergo a test flight to Honolulu and return, preparatory to the regular transpacific commercial flights.

DETROIT YOUTH FATALLY HURT IN AUTO MISHAP

Sixteen Year Old H. S. Student Killed When Auto Overturns

A tragic coincidence occurred early Tuesday morning near Detroit, Ill., when Noble Heine, a 16 year old Detroit, Mich., high school student, was fatally injured in an automobile wreck. Riding hundreds of miles from Detroit, the metropolis, to Detroit, the small Pike county village, young Heine was killed as the result of a tire bursting.

He was brought to Our Saviour's hospital in an unconscious condition, where he died at 3 o'clock.

His sister, Mrs. Frances Clark of Hannibal, Mo., who was driving the car, was badly injured and is in the hospital. She did not regain consciousness until after arriving at the hospital in an ambulance.

George Stoneking, 15-year-old Hannibal youth, a chum of Heine, was badly shaken up but was not seriously hurt.

Tire Blows Out

According to Stoneking, the wreck occurred at a point on U. S. Route 36 near Detroit when a tire blew out, causing the woman to lose control. Heine received a crushed chest and internal injuries. The victims were brought to the hospital in Danner's ambulance from Winchester, and were attended by Dr. Reginald Norris.

Mrs. Clark suffered much from shock, sustaining an injury to her left side, cuts and bruises. Her husband, Clay Ray of Hannibal, arrived a few hours after the wreck. Mrs. Clark retains her maiden name because of business reasons.

Coroner E. O. Sample impaneled a jury and held an inquest at Our Saviour's hospital early Tuesday. The jury found that Heine came to his death from "shock and internal injuries." The jurors also found that death was accidental.

Members of the jury were: Walter DeShara, foreman, Earl Williams, Thomas O'Connell, Charles Hughett, Leonard Shelton, and Sam Harris.

Boy Was Asleep

The witnesses before the jury were: Clay Ray and George Stoneking, both of Hannibal, and Dr. Reginald Norris.

Stoneking in his testimony stated that he was asleep just before the accident happened. He said he felt the car jumping and when he awoke felt the car turning over. He was unable to tell just how the accident happened.

It was learned, however, that the right front tire of the car blew out, causing the car to leave the highway.

Heine's remains were taken to Hannibal, Mo., yesterday.
